

and a man's face(53-4).

Then identified Harry Carpenter in court room (54).

Immediately heard a shot and ran to her mule (54).

Saw no woman or colored man (54).

Heard three shots and ran her mule home (55).

Stumbled over stump (55).

Arriving home found she had lost her moccasins and went back to where mule was tied (55-6).

Didn't find moccasins (56).

Heard someone crying (56).

Looked through bushes and by very bright moon saw Mrs. Hall kneeling or stooping (57-8).

Did not see bodies (57).

Mrs. Hall had no hat, white hair, long tan coat (57-8).

Accompanied by David, identified Harry Carpenter at Pennsylvania Station (58-9).

Identified moccasins, marked Exhibit S-1 (59).

Thought man in the lane was a colored man, heavy, thick set with mustache (60).

Woman crying was same one in lane (60).

CROSS-EXAMINATION:

Recalls night by mother moving from Bayonne (61).

Dark night when she left home before nine (62).

Walked her mule (62).